Don't Forget to Buy a New Method Gas Range

You are looking for a Gas Range, and want to buy "THE BEST"—THE NEW METHOD. You see gas ranges and gas ranges, all claimed to be "THE BEST," making you in doubt which is! If you could examine all the gas ranges that are made you would find that there is very little difference in their construction as far as the burners, manner of lighting them and construction of the oven are concerned. (These are the things in a range that decide how much gas you will burn and how well your baking and cooking will be done.) And if you can see a range made ten years ago you would find that its construction was practically the same as those shown today with one exception—

The New Method

They're different—will reduce your gas bills 25 per cent.
